Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you on behalf of the National Broadcasting Company for your thoughtful commendation of our coverage of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's hearings on U.S. policy in Vietnam.

In view of the seriousness of the Vietnam situation, we felt it our journalistic obligation to interrupt regular programming so we might present live coverage of the Senate hearings. It is gratifying to know that you agree with this decision.

With best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Kathryn S. Cole
